What Would Love Do Foundation Names Teachers Everyday Heroes

Teachers to Receive Complimentary Children's e-Book, Wondrous Willow

Dayton, OH, USA (January 18, 2016) – The What Would Love Do Foundation is honoring all teachers as Willow's Wonders Everyday Heroes™ well ahead of National Teacher Appreciation Day, May 3rd.

Why now? To provide ongoing inspiration and support to teachers, the What Would Love Do Foundation would like to give teachers everywhere an extra boost of appreciation at the start of the new year. Who do you know that is a teacher who deserves recognition?

“As a thank you, Yugen Press in partnership with the What Would Love Do Foundation is gifting every teacher children's e-book, Wondrous Willow, for classroom and personal use,” says 2014 Dayton Literary Peace Prize nominated author Christine Horner. “We also offer a teaching and event guide, including a printer-friendly Willow's Wonders Everyday Hero Certificate. All items are available for free download.”

Teachers may request their gift by visiting: <http://eepurl.com/bNn6KL>. Nominate everyday heroes at www.WondrousWillow.com. Yugen Press and the What Would Love Do Foundation, a 501(c)(3) non-profit are located in Dayton, Ohio.
